REPORTS

Trustee:

Lillian explained the handouts in the board packets. The statistics for missed appointments and food pantry usage were discussed. Lillian mentioned her attendance of the Indiana Township Association (ITA) task force on fire funding, and stated she will forward the minutes from the meeting to the board members. Lillian pointed out the budget protest article from the Herald Times, and the online response to the article. It was noted that public opinion was mostly in support of the salary increases. Lillian discussed the Capstone project on fire protection that we are participating in along with several other townships and the Town of Ellettsville Fire Department.

Barbara moved to adjourn. Bill seconded. The meeting was adjourned at 5:53. The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, November 14.
